SUPERMAN SAVES MOTHER AND CHILD

The occupants knew the bridge on the far side of the water was changing, but didn't realize how much until the vibrations caused the bridge to collapse, said lead investigator on the [illegible] her day at school and the other half at what was then the other location. It was there to solve the problem. "It was really scary," she said, "especia ly when the water rushed around us." There were many ques tions to be answered, and some are still working themselves out. The engineers are working six days a week and said th investigation is "doing OK." Whatever happens, they know cause will be discovered so that no one will ever be hurt in future thanks to Superman. Next time officials say that real [illegible]ed to build bridges. The animated steel just does
